~BIO WRITING FOR DUMMIES~

1. Welcome to the ALMIGHTY BIO FORM. Bask in its glory. A bio is a short (MARK IT, SHORT) description of your drama history, shout outs, or a random compilation of inside jokes that goes inside of the program, which is handed out on show night. This brings me to number 2!
2. This program will be seen by people! This means NOTHING NAUGHTY. Even if you try your hardest to sneak something obscene or off-color into your bio, the producers will come down upon it with a mighty vengeance and smite it! SMITE IT. We will strike it from the record and write a new, boring bio for you. So please- no swear words, sex jokes, insults, ill-intentioned snark, manifestos, naughty phrases or references to Heart Of Darkness (Okay, the last one's just mine, and thus unofficial. But you have been warned.).
3. K.I.S.S- Keep it simple, stupid! You have 25 words (with the exception of Directors) to use. So trying to fit the full story of your magical birth to Atlantean parents who died when the city sank but used super-cool Atlantean technology to preserve you in an ultra-fly protective pink bubble in which you were sheltered and grew up in only to land in Oz and rule over the Munchkins until this uppity little red-shoed Kansas chick came along and- You get the point. SHORT AND SWEET.
4. There is so much candy in my house right now and it is fannnnnnntastic. So if these directions appear to be fueled by sugar-rage and procrastination, you are RIGHT. Also, why does everyone hate on Born This Way? I mean, I thought it was pretty solid song. The video is weird and all, but: If you haven't already moved on the OTHER number 4, give yourself a pat on the back for having an attention span longer than mine.)
4. Some helpful hints for keeping it short: Speak in the third person (Caroline has been wrangling Velociraptors since 1848...). Also, your name will be RIGHT by your bio, and works as an unofficial start to your bio (Ethan Carleton has been a bro-ghost ever since....) so write it as though your name started the first sentence of your bio.

This will be what appears in the program- make us proud!
